Mission Statement

The mission of Georgia Northwestern Technical College is to provide accessible, high quality technical education and workforce development opportunities that lead to careers in technology, business, health, and public services. Operating under the Technical College System of Georgia, both on campus and distance education programs are offered that lead to certificates, diplomas, and associate degrees. The educational programs of the college focus on the development of technical competence and critical thinking skills as well as social, personal, and intellectual values. In addition, Georgia Northwestern Technical College supports the communities of the Northwest Georgia service area by providing adult education and economic development services, customized business and industry training, and personal enrichment programs that meet the workforce needs of area citizens, communities, and companies.

2011 Annual Report

President, Craig McDaniel

In 2011, Georgia Northwestern Technical College served a record breaking 26,399 students. With an annual credit enrollment of 10,412 students, GNTC is the largest college in Northwest Georgia and the fifth largest technical college in the state of Georgia. GNTC has an additional enrollment of approximately 15,987 people through adult education, continuing education, business and industry training, and Georgia Quick Start.

Serving the nine counties of Catoosa, Chattooga, Dade, Floyd, Gordon, Murray, Polk, Walker, and Whitfield, GNTC has five convenient campus locations in Floyd, Gordon, Polk, Walker, and Whitfield counties. With over 200 programs of study in business, health, industrial, and public service available, students have the opportunity to earn a degree, diploma, or a certificate from GNTC.

Georgia Northwestern Technical College also has a variety of noncredit options available through the Office of Economic Development including continuing education courses, business and industry training courses, Georgia Work Ready Certification, and Georgia Quick Start. Through GNTC's Office of Adult Education, students can enroll in GED classes, assess their skills in various academic areas, learn English as a second language, and take the Work Keys Assessments for the Georgia Work Ready program.
