

Vaccinations and Immunizations

Georgia Northwestern Technical College is not a residential college and therefore does not require vaccinations or keep a record of immunization for admissions. However, proof of certain vaccinations and immunization records is required after admission for some programs in which students will be doing clinical externships at medical or other facilities.